All applicants for LCSW must complete this form.

Please Type or Print In Ink

Name of Applicant: _____

"Clinical social work concentration" means a course of study with a primary focus on resolving intrapsychic and interpersonal problems by means of direct contact with clients at the individual, small group and family level. A concentration on community or organizational problems, social planning or policy development does not constitute a clinical social work concentration. To qualify as a master's or doctoral degree in social work with a concentration in clinical social work, the course of study shall include one course in psychopathology in social work and, from among the following, 2 theory and practice courses:

    (a)   Case management.

    (b)   Psychopathology in social work.

    (c)   Clinical assessment & treatment of specific populations and problems, such as children, adolescent, elderly, alcohol and drug abuse, family or couples relationships.

    (d)   Psychopharmacology.

    (e)   Psychotherapeutic interventions.

    (f)   Electives such as family therapy, social work with groups, sex- or gender-related issues and topics.

Please indicate below the courses you have completed in your master's or doctoral program in the following subject areas. If you have not obtained your master's or doctoral degree in Wisconsin, please include course description. Do not send syllabi unless requested.
